Thank you for your letter of 1 December 1958 concerning possible employment with this Agency subsequent to your retirement.

Unfortunately, the situation here is not at all encouraging. This Agency is authorized by Congress to employ only a very limited number of retired military officers. These positions are presently filled or firmly committed, and we do not anticipate any vacancies in the near future.

Your interest in this organization is appreciated, and I regret that my answer cannot be more favorable.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
General, USAF
Deputy Director

This is in reply to your letter dated 1 December 1958 concerning possible employment with this Agency subsequent to your retirement.

Upon receipt of your letter, our personnel requirements were analyzed to determine whether we had a suitable vacancy against which you could be considered. Unfortunately, however, we have no such vacancies at the present time nor can we anticipate any in the near future.

We shall keep your letter in an active status so that you may be considered in the event a vacancy does occur. I am enclosing a personal resume form, which, when completed and returned, will be of material assistance in our consideration.

Sincerely,

C. P. Cabell
General, USAF
Deputy Director
